6. Terms of office of members:

The terms of office of all non-official members of the State Council or of any outstanding committee appointed by the State Council shall be three years from the date of appointment or nomination, as the case may be, provided that a member appointed or nominated in his capacity as a member of a particular body or as the holder of a particular appointment shall automatically cease to be a member if he ceases to be a member of that body or the holder of that appointment. Any person appointed to a casual vacancy among the non-official members of the State Council shall be a member of the State Council for the residue of the term for which the person whose place he fills would have been a member.

7. Proceedings of the State Council:

- (a) The Chairman of the State Council, when present, shall preside over all meetings of the Council.
- (b) In the absence of the Chairman, the Secretary to the State Government in the administrative department concerned shall preside.
- (c) One-third of the number of members of the State Council shall constitute the quorum for any meeting of the Council or its sub-committee.
- (d) Not less than 30 days' notice of every meeting of the State Council shall ordinarily be given to each member, but a shorter notice may be given for urgent meeting. The State Council shall meet as often as may be necessary and at least once in every year.
- (e) The agenda of every meeting shall be sent so as to reach the members at least 15 days before the scheduled date of the meeting.

- (f) In the case of difference of opinion amongst the members of the State Council, the opinion of the majority shall prevail.
- (g) If there is equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting shall exercise a casting vote.
- (h) The Chairman, may, in special circumstances, instead of convening a meeting of the State Council, obtain the views of the members on any item of business individually by circulation instead of at a meeting.
- (i) No proceedings of the State Council shall be invalidated merely by reason of the existence of any vacancy or vacancies amongst the members.

8. Committees:

The State Council shall have the powers to appoint Committees for assisting it in the discharge of its functions.

9. Recommendations:

Recommendations of the State Council on training policy shall be referred to the State Government for decision.

10. Board of Examination:

The State Council shall constitute a Board of Examination as a Committee of the State Council, which shall perform the following functions:—

- (a) To constitute a Local Board of Examination at each examination centre.
- (b) To co-opt outside experts on Local Boards of Examinations as and when necessary.
- (c) To make necessary arrangements for the proper conduct of examinations including the provision of raw material, answer books and other stationery at the examination centres.
- (d) To fix the scale of remuneration for outside experts on the Local Boards of Examinations and arrange payment thereof.
- (e) To ensure compliance with the standards prescribed by the National Council for the conduct of examinations.
- (f) To declare the final results.
- (g) To submit a yearly report to the State Council regarding its activities and to suggest measures for effecting improvements.

11. Inspection of Training Institutes:

The State Council's functions in regard to inspection of Training Institutes shall be exercised through the department in-charge of training of craftsmen in the State. The training Institutions shall offer all facilities for inspection to any members of the State/National Council or to any Committee appointed by the State/National Council or any officer of the Government of India, Ministry of Labour and Employment (DGRE).

12. Staff:

The department in-charge of training in the State shall provide the required secretariat assistance to the State Council.

13. Publications:

An annual report of the working of the State Council for Training in Vocational Trades shall be published. The State Council may also publish periodical news bulletins and training manuals for disseminating information of interest to trainees, Training Institutions and industries.

14. Finances:

The entire expenses of the State Council shall be borne by the State Government. Official members of the State Council and the Committees appointed under para 8 will be entitled for travelling and other allowances for attending the State Council meetings and for performing the work connected with the State Council from their respective departments. Non-official members of the State Council will be paid travelling allowances by the State Government at the rate admissible to State Government Officers of the 1st Grade in accordance with the State Government Rules.
